FOUR LENTEN READINGS. BY MRS. HELEN WEIL

To Be Conducted Under Auspices of Society for Homeless Dogs.

A series of Lenten readings has been arranged to be given by Mrs. Helen Weil, of Cambridge, Mass., under the auspices of the Society for Homeless Dogs. These readings will be accompanied by lectures and are scheduled for the first four Tuesdays in March.

The first, on "Tennyson," will be held at the home of ex-Senator John B. Henderson, Sixteenth Street and Florida Avenue. The second will be at Mrs. Logan's Calumet Place home, on "Browning." The third will be at the Russian embassy, and Mrs. Weil will then read "Paola and Francesca," by Stephen Phillips. The fourth reading will be at the home of Gen. Nelson A. Miles, with a program not yet announced.

It is expected that quite a large sum of money will be realized from these readings for the benefit of the society.

Members of the board include Mrs. Nelson A. Miles, president; Mrs. H. B. F. Macfarland, vice president; Virginia P. Ball, treasurer; Anna P. Thomas, secretary; Mrs. H. V. Boynton, Hon. Maude Pauncefoot, Countess Cassini, Mrs. Lowell Chamberlin, Katherine E. Thomas, and Mrs. William Thompson Harris.

There is an extended membership list, including the majority of prominent residents of the District.

Tickets for the series of entertainments can be obtained from members, privately, or at Sanders & Stayman's music store; also a number have been placed for sale through the courtesy of the Misses Coleman at the new clubhouse, 822 Connecticut Avenue.
